

Best Practices 1:

The Ideal boy, Ideal Girl , Class Representatives and Sports Secretary are selected o the basis of Merit and ethical test.

- 1) Objective : To motivate the students in building their personality by participating in all the curricular and Co-Curricular activities.
- 2) Context : After enrolment of the students the regular classes start. Every year in the month of August applications are invited by the Moral Panel from students for the selection of Ideal Boy/ Ideal Girl / Class Representatives and sports secretary or Representative. After receiving the applications forms, written test of 50 marks(Multiple Choice) will be conducted. After assessment of the written test scripts, the eligible candidates list be put on the notice-board. After this final oral test or interview be conducted for the eligible candidates Moral Panel Committee chairman and members, select the eligible candidates as IB/IG /CR's and Sports Representative for the Academic year.

The Committee contains Chairman (the senior teaching faculty) and the special officers such as SWO, NSS, NCC, YRC, RRC and scouts and Guides act as members of the committee.

- 3) Practice : It has been conceived that the students cultivate good habits and moral values and also gain confidence.
- 4) Merit : This healthy practice felicitates talented and meritorious students.
- 5) Demerit : Students belonging to political background and the politics interested students get frunhated by this practice

Best Practice 2 :

College felicitates the students who get appointed in Army and Retired Soldiers. Success in NET, SLET, Ph.D and other professional qualifications.

- 1) Objectives : To inspire the existing Students and to recognize the service/achievement of the individual.
- 2) Context : It is during the course of their study or after graduation , the students who get appointed in Indian army, the NCC Officer collects the information of such successful students and are being felicitated either on the occasion of Annual Fest or Independence / Republic Day. The Rtd. Soldiers are also felicitated for their service to the Nation. Specially either on Independence or Republic Day.
Regarding NET, SLET and other professional qualification or achievement, the chairman Annual Fest collects the information and the list of the achievers be made and are felicitated on Annual Day programme. Alumnus of our college will be the Chief Guest on the occasion of Gymkhana Day, for his/her achievement in respective field.
- 3) Practice : By this healthy practice our proud Students motivated and inspired by the achievers. On the part of achievers, they are proud and acknowledge to the honour of the institution.
- 4) Merit : This healthy practice promotes efficiency, skill, talent and intelligence.
- 5) Demerit : The students who get appointed in the army and other professional qualifications remain absent due to, in rendering their service to the Nation/ Society.